

Brian D. Yankiewicz

OBITUARY

Brian D. Yankiewicz, 26, Frackville, died Friday evening in Mahanoy City.

Born in Frackville, he was the son of Joseph and Peggy R. Zelonis Yankiewicz, Frackville. A lifelong Frackville resident, he was a 1992 graduate of North Schuylkill High School, a member of its Student Council and was inducted into the North Schuylkill Hall of Fame in 1998 for his football performance.

He was last employed at Alcoa Engineered Products, Cressona.

He served with the Pennsylvania National Guard and was honorably discharged in 1995.

He was a member of Annunciation BVM Roman Catholic Church, Frackville, Good Will Hose Company No. 1, Frackville, Shenandoah Columbia Hose Company; Shenandoah Fish and Game Association, Ringtown.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are a brother, Derek J., Frackville; a sister, Lisa Yankiewicz, at home; paternal grandmother, Dorothy Mack Yankiewicz, Frackville; a nephew; aunts and uncles; cousins.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated in his memory at 10 a.m.

Wednesday at Annunciation BVM Church by the Rev. Domink Kalata. Interment will be in the parish cemetery, Frackville. There will be no viewing. Nice Funeral Home, Frackville, is in charge of arrangements.